Melete Social Impact Competition Terms and Conditions

By entering into this competition (as an individual Entrant) you confirm that you have read and understood the terms and conditions. You confirm that your Entry is original and that you own and have the right to license the copyright and other intellectual property rights in the Entry for the purposes referred to in these terms.

Definitions

- "Cash Prizes" refer to any monetary award given to winners of the Competition.
- "Competition" means the Melete Social Impact Scholarship Competition to help students develop and launch new social impact businesses or come up with innovative ideas.
- "Entrant" refers to an individual who makes an Entry
- "Entry" refers to any one submission to the Competition, by an individual

By submitting an Entry to this Competition, each Entrant agrees to the following terms and conditions:

1. Eligibility

This Competition is open to all full time and part time current students at Brunel University of London (University). You must be a current student at the time of entering the competition as well as at the time of the final judging phase. If you are an international student, you will be eligible to win the prize only. Due to visa restrictions, you must not start the business whilst you are a student in the UK. To be eligible for a prize, finalists must confirm attendance and be present at the Melete Social Impact Competition Finals. Any person(s) who has a direct involvement with the organising department of the University is ineligible to enter the Competition.

2. Entry

Entry is free of charge. The winner(s) will be chosen based on merit by a panel of judges and the winning Entry will win a prize as described further below.

3. How to enter

Entrants can submit more than one Entry but only one Entry per individual or team can progress to round 2 of the Competition in the case where both Entries are otherwise eligible.

Each Entrant confirms that their Entry and its intended development and/or exploitation does not and will not, to the best of the Entrants knowledge and belief, infringe the intellectual property or any other rights of any third party. Such parties may include but are not limited to collaborators, colleagues, fellow students, research sponsors, etc.

It is the responsibility of the Entrant to confirm that they have the right to exploit any intellectual property contained in their plan, and to take the appropriate steps to protect it.

The University accepts no liability incurred in connection with a breach of any third-party rights by any Entrant. Any Entrant found to be or alleged to be in breach of any third-party rights agrees to indemnify the University for all liability incurred by the University in connection with such actual or alleged breach. The University will use reasonable endeavours to hold in confidence any confidential information contained in the Entries and will take reasonable steps to ensure that all panel judges and business advisors are bound by similar obligations of confidentiality before giving them access to the Entries. The University reserves the right in its absolute discretion to disqualify any Entrant(s) if it has reasonable grounds to believe that an Entrant has breached any of these terms, any applicable law or has otherwise infringed the intellectual property rights or any other rights of any other person, or otherwise may be considered to bring the University into disrepute.

No Entries will be accepted after the deadline date for the Competition.

4. Finalists and winners

Entrants will be selected based on merit by a panel of judges for progression to the next round of the Competition. The panel's decision is final, and no correspondence will be entered into, except as expressly stated in these terms and conditions, relating to how the decision has been reached.

5. Prizes

All prizes are non-transferable, non-refundable, non-changeable and subject to availability. All Cash Prizes will be paid directly by the Melete Foundation, by way of a BACS transfer, to the individual Entrant (as applicable) into a nominated bank account.

6. Publicity and personal data

By entering, you grant Brunel University of London and The Melete Foundation permission to use your name, image and biographical information in relation to the promotion of this and future competitions. Where appropriate, a case-by-case opt-out can be requested for sensitive matters.

All personal data will be processed in accordance with data protection legislation and the University's privacy policies.

Entrants' names and other details may be published on the University website. They permit the University to hold records of the personal information supplied by them and to use such information to promote the Competition and future Brunel Melete Social Impact competitions) as well as to keep them informed by post, e-mail or other means about courses, products and services which may be of interest to them. Any personal information relating to Entrants will be processed by the University in accordance with applicable data protection legislation.

All winning Entrants unconditionally agree (as a condition of accepting any prize) to: (a) the use of their name, one or more photographs of themselves; and (b) co-operate with or participate in any other reasonable post-Competition publicity. Any valid or reasonable requests from an Entrant who does not wish for their photos to be used will be considered on a case-by-case basis by the University whose decision shall be final.

7. Freedom of Information

The University is committed to meeting its legal obligations under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ("FOIA"). Accordingly, it may be required to disclose any information submitted by Entrants in response to a request under FOIA.

8. Liability

The University gives no guarantee in relation to prizes offered by third parties and assumes no liability for the failure or non-performance thereof under any circumstances. The University will not be liable for any loss, damage or delay which occurs in connection with Entrants' participation in this Competition or their use of any prize, including without limitation financial, indirect or consequential loss. Nothing in these terms and conditions will seek to limit or exclude the University's liability for death or personal injury resulting from its negligence.

9. Changes

The University reserves the right to cancel, or amend the terms of, this Competition at any time without notice. 11. Governing law These terms and conditions will be governed by and construed in accordance with English law and Entrants consent to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.

Disclaimer

Please note that the confidentiality of email transmissions is not guaranteed and where this method of communication is used you waive any claim for inadvertently and unintentionally breaching our duty of confidentiality.