

Brunel Graduate Ambassador Scheme

Are you a final-year undergraduate or recent graduate and interested in collaborating with the university after leaving Brunel? Our new ambassador scheme is looking for enthusiastic and passionate Brunelians to volunteer and support key university activities in the first two years after your graduation. This scheme will offer you opportunities to build your professional network, receive tailored careers support and expand your skillset

What's involved?

We know you will be busy after graduation, entering into the job market, travelling the world or continuing your studies, so we have made the Graduate Ambassador Scheme flexible to work around you, with activities spread out over a two-year period. This is a fantastic opportunity to make a significant contribution to Brunel in a rewarding and fulfilling way.

- ✓ Be featured with an alumni profile on a Graduate Ambassador webpage.
- ✓ Put your content creation skills to action and support Brunel social media campaigns such as Giving Day and Graduations.
- ✓ Write engaging posts on the Brunel Network, a platform for our alumni community to connect.
- ✓ Share your experiences at alumni and careers events.
- ✓ Mentor a Brunel student and guide them through their university experience.
- ✓ Organise an alumni reunion event in your city / country.

Benefits

Join a community of new graduates and receive a bespoke package of benefits to help you to progress your career in its early stages.

- ✓ A Graduate Ambassador T-Shirt and a Brunel alumni tote bag.
- ✓ Four 1-2-1 coaching sessions with a career's consultant
- ✓ Bespoke careers development workshops (E.g. Public speaking, Managing your time as a graduate).
- ✓ A bespoke Mentor training session.
- ✓ Extended opportunities and events to network with our alumni community of over 156,000 graduates in 177 countries, with support to find individuals in the sectors you are interested in.
- ✓ Experience for your CV and a Graduate Ambassador portfolio.
- ✓ Celebrated and recognised at our alumni awards event at the end of the scheme.

Who can apply?

This opportunity is open to all final-year undergraduate students and recent graduates who have previously taken on an ambassadorial, voluntary or leadership role at the university.

Leaving London after graduating? Not a problem. All UK and International graduates can apply.

How to apply?

Let us know about yourself and why you are interested. Ensure that you tell us everything important about why we should choose you for the role.

Please email alumni@brunel.ac.uk if you have any questions about the role.
