Monitoring school experience files

School experience files

- What evidence have you seen so far in both files?
- How well organised are the files?
- What questions would you pose to your student teacher about the evidence they have identified so far?

Key assessment dates

Interim assessment – the process

- Use the Tracking progress document on Pebblepad which relates to each of the areas of the Core Content Framework

- This is a formative assessment point
- Decision about whether the student is on track (i.e. at the point which you would expect, given the point on the programme) and mentor completes this for each of the CCF areas:
