Weekly Vocabulary
Round 2: Week 10

Academic Word: distinct (adj) /dɪˈstɪŋkt/

Meaning: clearly different from something else

Collocations: 'clearly distinct'
'totally distinct'
'distinct from something...'

Examples: A distinct difference was found in the second set of results.

General English Expression: 'call it a day'

Meaning: agree to stop doing something

Example: "We've been working for hours! I'm really tired."

"Yes, I agree. Let's call it a day and go home now."

Follow us on