TRAFFIC and PARKING REGULATIONS

1. General Information
The University campus is private land and drivers who bring their vehicles on to the campus do so at their own risk. The University accepts no responsibility or liability (whether in contract, tort, statutory duty or otherwise) for any loss or damage that occurs to any vehicle or its contents while that vehicle is on University land, whether with permission or not. In order to comply with the Health and Safety at Work Act 1974 and other legislation, the University must apply regulations to control the traffic flow and car parking to maximise safety on campus. Enforcement of the University Traffic and Parking Regulations is by the application of sanctions approved by the University authorities and imposed on behalf of the Vice-Chancellor and President.
