PART A – GENERAL PROCEDURES

Senate's Terms of Reference are set out in Council Ordinance 9.

Chair

1. In the absence of the Vice-Chancellor, the Provost shall preside at meetings of the Senate.

Quorum

2. Twenty-three members of Senate shall constitute a quorum, which must include 15 ex-officio members (to include at least one of the Vice-Chancellor, Provost, or Vice-Provosts, and eight elected members. In the absence of a quorum no business shall be transacted other than the adjournment of the meeting. At the adjourned meeting the business for which the original meeting was called may be completed in the absence of a quorum. The adjourned meeting shall be called by the Secretary to the Senate, and members given at least ten days' notice.

Secretary

3. In accordance with Council Ordinance 9, there shall be a Secretary to Senate who shall be appointed by the Vice-Chancellor.

Meetings

4. Meetings of the Senate shall be called by the Vice-Chancellor or the Secretary to the Senate, and shall be held normally not fewer than four times in an academic session. Extraordinary meetings may be held if called by the Chair or, in his/her absence, the Secretary, on receipt of a written request signed by any five members of the Senate stating the purpose for which a meeting is required. The Secretary shall give a minimum of seven clear days' notice before the meeting.

Agenda

5. The Secretary to Senate shall publish the agenda normally at least one week in advance of meetings.

Agenda Items

6. Any member of Senate may propose items for the agenda, which fall within the terms of reference of Senate, and any member of the teaching or research staff may propose items for the agenda to members of the Senate or to the Secretary to Senate. Provided ten working days' notice is given, all such proposed items must be included in the agenda, or be reported to the next meeting of the Senate. If the latter course is followed, the author of the item shall be given immediate notice in writing of the action taken, and s/he shall be informed of the reason.

Decision Taking

7. When a vote has to be taken, decision shall be by simple majority; if even voting occurs, the Chair shall have the casting vote.

Minutes

8. The Secretary to Senate shall keep minutes of all meetings. Copies of the unreserved minutes, together with the associated unreserved agenda papers, shall be available to Members of the University through the University's intranet.

Confidentiality

9. Members of Senate shall observe the relevant degree of confidentiality pertaining to the business of the committee.

Attendance

10. Members of Senate are expected to attend all meetings. Where a member does not attend for any three meetings within an academic year, the Chair may require that member to be removed from the Committee. If that member was elected, a replacement may be sought accordingly. Non-members may be admitted to meetings with observer status only, subject to the agreement of the Chair. Such guests of Senate may be required to leave if they cause a disturbance or if Senate so determines. A request to attend a meeting of Senate should be submitted to the Secretary at least five working days before the meeting to which the request refers.

Adjournment

11. The meeting may be adjourned at any time by the Chair.

Co-option

12. In accordance with Council Ordinance 9, Senate may resolve to co-opt additional members, provided that the reasons for so doing are explained and agreed. Membership of Senate by co-option shall be for a period of two or three years as Senate may determine with the possibility of a further period of co-option on one occasion only.

Closed matters

13. Papers and minutes containing information which is subject to freedom of information exemptions may be recorded as 'closed'. Papers and minutes recorded as 'closed' will not be made available externally to the University.

The following matters shall normally be recorded as closed;

- a) matters pertaining to the commercial interests of the University or its partners.

Reserved matters

14. The following matters, which may also be subject to freedom of information exemption, shall be recorded as 'reserved'. 'Reserved' matters shall normally be confidential to members of the Senate but may be restricted to circulation to staff members only by the Chair:

- a) matters affecting a named individual, such as matters affecting the appointment, promotion, dismissal and personal affairs of individual members of staff, including the composition and work of selection committees;
- b) matters affecting the admission and academic assessment of students including the awarding of degrees to individual students, and the withdrawal on grounds of academic failure of individual students;

- c) matters where release of information may endanger health and safety of individual(s);
 - d) matters pertaining to the commercial interests of the University or its partners (for members only);
 - e) other matters determined by the Chair.
15. During items of reserved business and such items of closed business as the Chair shall determine all students (whether members or attending) and any other observers present, unless they are permitted to remain by the agreement of the Senate, shall withdraw from the meeting place and shall not return until the business is concluded.
16. The Secretary of Senate may from time to time issue guidance on the format and content of papers and minutes for the Senate and its committees.

Election of Academic Staff to Senate

17. Elections shall normally take place in the appropriate academic year before 30 June. The persons elected shall take office on the following 1 August.
18. The composition of Senate shall be:

Ex-officio

- The Vice-Chancellor and President who shall be the Chairman
- The Provost
- The Vice-Provosts
- The Vice-Provosts and Deans
- The Deputy Deans (Academic Affairs) of each College of the University
- The Vice-Deans (Education) of each College of the University
- The Vice-Deans (Research) of each College of the University
- The Directors of the Research Institutes
- The President of the Students' Union
- Not more than five students of the University, at least one of whom shall be a postgraduate student, elected from among their own number in such a manner as the Senate shall determine
- The Dean of Students
- The Director of the Graduate School
- The Chair of each of Senate's Sub-Committees

Elected

- Two Professors or Readers from each College elected from amongst their own number by the Professors and Readers in each College
 - Two Senior Lecturers, Lecturers or Associate Lecturers from each College elected from amongst their own number by the Senior Lecturers, Lecturers or Associate Lecturers in each College
 - Three members of Research Staff, to include Research Assistants or Research Fellows, but not being Professors, Readers, Senior Lecturers or Lecturers of the University, elected from amongst their own number by the Research Staff in each College
19. The Secretary to Senate shall ask for nominations at least four weeks before the date fixed by him or her for the election.

20. Nominations must carry the signatures of two members of the academic and/or research staff of the College eligible to vote in the election (that is, of the Associate Lecturers, Lecturers, Senior Lecturers, the Readers/Professors, or the Research staff of the College), and the written agreement of the nominee to serve on the Senate if elected in accordance with the conditions approved by Senate.
21. The Secretary to Senate shall ensure that every member of the academic or research staff eligible to vote is notified of the election and the names of the candidates and is given the opportunity to vote.
22. The election shall be by ballot and by simple majority vote. Where there are two positions available the electorate may vote for up to two candidates. Any ballot paper with more than the number of votes eligible to be registered, or where the voting intention is insufficiently clear, will be regarded as spoilt and not included in the results. In the case of a tie leading to an unclear decision, another election shall be held, the only candidates being those who received an equal number of votes.
23. Members of Senate shall hold office for a period of two or three years as the Senate may determine. Elected representatives shall be eligible for election for a further consecutive period of up to two years. An interval of at least one year must then occur before the member of staff may stand for election again.
24. Where a vacancy occurs (or is expected to occur), the vacancy shall be filled by the candidate with the next highest number of votes in the election at which the member retiring was elected. The new representative shall serve until the date of the next election. Where there is no such candidate or where the vacancy or vacancies would leave no elected representative for the College, an election shall be called by the Secretary to Senate in accordance with this Regulation.

PART B – STANDING COMMITTEES OF SENATE

The following committees have been established by Senate and shall report from time to time to Senate. They shall have such authority to act on behalf of Senate as their terms of reference shall determine. The Vice-Chancellor or in his or her absence, the Provost, shall be an ex-officio member of all Committees of Senate. (All ex-officio members are noted in italics.)

All committees of Senate will consider the potential equality and diversity impact of the work they undertake. The Student Experience and Welfare Committee has further oversight of equality and diversity matters affecting students.

There are two joint committees of Senate and Council (Honorary Degrees Committee and University Research Ethics Committee). Their respective Terms of Reference are published separately outside of this Regulation.
