Academic Grammar (Zoom)
(1 hour a week for 5 weeks)

Course Aim and Outcomes
When editing written assignments, you add grammatical accuracy and sophistication. To do this you will:

- correctly use lexical and grammatical structures that are commonly found in academic writing;
- identify and correct grammatical errors commonly found in student writing.

Course Content
Areas covered include: tenses, the use of the passive, collocations and academic phrases, noun phrases, subordinate clauses, and sentence errors. There are individual and pair/group work activities with discussion.
