

UNIVERSITY ACCOMMODATION POLICY 2018/19

Brunel University London:

- Operates a fair allocation policy that does not discriminate on grounds of race, colour, religion, ethnicity, sexuality, age, gender or disability.
- Each year sets aside a number of rooms for returning students for the following session. The number of rooms set aside may vary each year depending on University target figures for new students. These rooms are allocated in accordance with guidelines to returning students who apply and pay the booking fee by the deadline date, usually in January each year. Students who apply will be considered for allocation in order of policy priority and will be provisionally allocated before the end of session.
- If the demand from returning students for accommodation is greater than the supply of rooms, students who apply and pay the booking fee by the deadline date will be entered into a ballot for a place in halls in order of policy priority.
- Thereafter returning students who apply and pay the booking fee by the deadline date, but are unsuccessful in the ballot, may remain on the waiting list and will be prioritised for cancellations or for extra room availability should recruitment of new student targets not be reached in September.

The order of priority for the allocation of rooms in the residences is as follows:

Priority 1.	Students with disabilities (see Brunel University London Medical Policy);
Priority 2.	Undergraduate students (including Clearing and Adjustment students) in their first year of registration in full-time study and full-time postgraduate, research, international students, under 18's, estranged, Sport Scholar and Care Leaver students who apply by the relevant deadline dates;
Priority 3.	Undergraduate full-time final year students on sandwich courses;
