DATA PROTECTION

The personal information provided in the form will be used to verify your identity and added to our electronic Library Management System. It will be removed three months after your access expires. Your data will not be passed onto third parties.

We will only contact you regarding legitimate business processes. If you have items on your library account, you will receive automatic notifications if items fall overdue, are needed by another user, cannot be renewed or are lost. We may also contact you regarding suspension of access for visitors or to advise that your account is due to expire. We will not send you email marketing our services.

For further information, please see the University Privacy Notice: <https://www.brunel.ac.uk/About-this-website/terms-and-conditions>
