

Anna Rovelli

07655 321155

<http://uk.linkedin.com/in/linkedinyourname>

14000000@my.brunel.ac.uk

PROFILE

- Second Year Student in Biomedical Science on track to achieve a 2:1
- Problem solving and attention to detail developed as lab intern
- High level of dexterity achieved during laboratory sessions
- Currently completing online GLP and GCP courses
- Competent user of various IT Microsoft packages including Word, Excel and PowerPoint
- Strong communications and presentation skills developed during my studies and employment

EDUCATION

Brunel University London BSc (Hons) Biomedical Sciences (2:1) 2015 – 2019

Year 2 modules: Molecular & Cellular Biology, Genetics Engineering and Immunology,
Principles of Human Disease, Genetics and Development, Medical Microbiology,
Professional Skills

Year 1 modules: Microscopy (A), Biochemical Analysis (A), Molecular Analysis (A) Research &
Communication Skills (B), Biomedical Sciences Exam (A), Synoptic Exam (A).

Coulsdon 6th Form College 2015
A-level: Biology (B), Chemistry (C), Sociology (B)

Coulsdon High School 2013
GCSE: 8 at grade A and B including English Language and Maths

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

Laboratory Intern Brunel University London January 2017-

- Internship in Dr Green's lab supporting a PhD student in her research
- Responsible for setting up PCR experiments and run Gel Electrophoresis
- Using a DNA database to obtain specific data and profiles
- Microscope to identify gram positive and gram negative bacteria
- Attending weekly lab meeting

Volunteer Worker St Joseph's Hospice June 2014 – present

- Working one or two evenings a week supporting patients and their relatives in frequently difficult circumstances – includes helping at mealtimes, personal care needs, reading, talking and listening
- Assisting with administrative duties, file patient records in in-house database and take part in fund raising events
- Developed strong communications skill while liaising with professional members of the nursing, medical, administrative and social work team and contribute to team meetings

EMPLOYMENT

Sales Assistant

Gap, Croydon

Oct 2013 – June 2014

- Weekend job for busy, target driven store where excellent team working and customer service skills were an essential requirement and regularly monitored
- Responsible for own section in terms of stock, customer queries and supervising more junior members of staff
- Served customers – took cash and credit card transactions and placed orders

Play Scheme Worker

London Borough of Barnet

June – Sept 2013

- Summer holiday job organising and supervising a variety of structured play activities for children aged 7-11
- Worked within strict health and safety guidelines, ensuring that any incidents were reported to the play scheme leader
- Participated in first aid training and successfully achieved intermediate level certificate

ACHIEVEMENTS

- Received 'Gap employee of the month' award in recognition of feedback received and sales targets achieved
Captain of Hockey girls team in high school
- Raised £300 pound for Cancer Research through baking during the first year at Brunel

INTERESTS

- Active member of Brunel ladies hockey team competing in a national university league
- Lively interest in current affairs and regular reader of scientific journals including New Scientist
- Regular overseas travel – most recent highlight was taking part in an expedition to Malaysia during 6th form studies