

Seema Ahmed

62 Uxbridge Road, Hayes, Middlesex UB8 4BX

Mobile: 07771 000000

Email: hs03sxa@brunel.ac.uk

LinkedIn URL

Profile:

- Final year student of psychology at Brunel University London
- Experience of working with vulnerable individuals with mental health issues and learning difficulties in a variety of professional settings
- Research experience gained in mental health and competent user of SPSS
- Fluent in Punjabi and conversational Urdu

Education

2014-18                      BSc (Hons) Psychology                      Brunel University London

Achieved high 2:1 in level 2. Key modules include:

Advanced Research Methods (A), Clinical Psychology (B), Individual Differences (A)

Emphasises good grades and most relevant modules

2007-14 Random School, Hillingdon

2014    A-levels: Psychology (B), English (A), Biology (C)

2012    GCSEs: 10 (A-C) including English (B), Maths (B) and Double Science (A)

Placement Experience

Feb 2017–present                      Hillingdon Mind                      Police Support Worker

- Placement role initially and now continuing on a voluntary basis
- Attend local Police Station to support members of the public who have suspected mental health problems
- Use patience, empathy and assertiveness to calm disturbed behaviour and support family and friends of those brought into the station under arrest
- Have to recognise and adhere to professional boundaries and liaise appropriately with others such as social workers and health practitioners.

Separates out related work experience. Heading emphasises its relevance.

Aug– Dec 2015                      Recall, Ealing                      Project Worker

- Placement role supporting young adults with a history of drug and substance abuse
- Engaged in practical and creative activities with project users, many of whom had mental health issues
- Assisted in group interventions to raise self-esteem and sense of empowerment
- Gained knowledge of statutory and support services by working alongside a variety of social and health care professionals.

Other Relevant Experience

Sept 2016–May 2017

Private family

Childminder

- Provided learning support to an eight year old boy with learning difficulties
- Engaged in creative play to build attention span and develop motor skills
- Helped with vocal exercises under the direction of a speech therapist

Jun–Aug 2016

Brunel University

Research Assistant

- Assisted professor with research project during summer vacation
- Carried out clinical assessments of young adults with suspected bi-polar disorder
- Used a variety of assessment techniques such as WISC, mood charts and other questionnaires to determine condition
- Undertook administrative support such as record keeping and diary management

Clinical posts need research skills as well as client/patient experience

Jun 2015

Hayes Mental Health Care Trust

Work Shadow

- Two week work shadowing placement with clinical psychologists and other staff
- Learned about NHS structures and was able to observe some patient sessions
- Confirmed my desire to seek qualification as a clinical psychologist

Additional Work Experience

Part-time Sales Assistant and Waitress jobs with Next and Pizza Hut whilst studying have provided financial independence and developed my ability to interact with the public, contribute effectively to teams and to maintain stamina and effective customer service during long and busy shifts.

Stresses
skills

Additional Information

- Student Ambassador for Brunel University to encourage wider participation in HE
- Student member of the British Psychological Society
- Enjoy a variety of cultural activities including Indian music and dance